WILL McINTOSH: MANAGER, GLENGARRY KINGSLAND

Our (almost) new Kingsland store is approaching its first birthday, and it's time for a new face at the helm. For you regulars out there thinking, 'what's up with our Danielle?' do not despair; Danielle has merely hopped the railway lines to head up our Newmarket Store. In charge at Kingsland from this month you'll find Will McIntosh. When Will started with us two years ago, he applied for a job as a Barista at our Herne Bay Dida's Food Store. It's only now that he admits that it was just a ploy to get a foot in the door at Glengarry. What drew him to us? 'It's the family company, the size of the business and the focus,' he says.

Will grew up in Gisborne surrounded by the Wine industry, and had always had an interest in it. After college Will headed for bigger pastures to study for a Bachelor of Science, specialising in Forensics. Towards the end of that degree, he fortuitously met Richard Gardener, a professor in the Biology Department that was, at the time, enjoying a government grant to study yeast genetics, with a particular focus on New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc. Will freely admits that the fact the government had dropped $4 million into the project did grab his attention somewhat.

Drawn to Richard's discourse, Will changed horses and finished his degree in Oenology, loving every minute of it. Will has enjoyed working for Glengarry, and in particular, learning all about the international wines we import. Ready for his next challenge, Will has been promoted to manager and is heading to Kingsland. He's excited about the change, looking forward to learning all about craft beer and ready to meet his new community.

Smart New Zealand rosé

Murdoch James produce only small quantities of this tasty, Petite Meunier-based rosé. It is made by lightly pressing the grapes, rather than via the saignée method (where some of the juice is removed at an early stage and fermented separately), offering deep summer fruit flavours enhanced by a dash of refreshing minerality. Good with food, or on its own.

PEREGRINE

FLYING THE UPWARD ARC

PEREGRINE WINEMAKER NADINE CROSS

With auspicious beginnings, Peregrine's inaugural 1998 Sauvignon Blanc won the Champion Trophy at the Air New Zealand Wine Awards. Since then the winery has continued its winning ways, amassing a hoard of domestic and international goodies for the trophy cabinet. The ultimate goal of owners Lindsay McLachlan and Greg Hay has been to produce hallmark Central Otago wines off their own organically certified vineyards, augmented with fruit from selected growers.

The wines are crafted by Otago native Nadine Cross in a stunningly designed winery complex featuring a dramatic canopy evocative of a falcon's wingspan. Nadine: 'Our approach is along traditional lines, with minimal intervention and judicious use of oak to allow the unique flavours of Central Otago to shine through. Individual vineyards provide different characteristics, from which we are able to produce elegant, intensely flavoured wines'

With their eye locked firmly on sustainability, Peregrine are major sponsors of the Wingspan Birds of Prey Trust, an organisation dedicated to preserving endangered species, including New Zealand's native falcon, the Karearea.

PEREGRINE RASTASBURN CENTRAL OTAGO Riesling 2009

was $25.90 now $19.99 17111

CASE OF 12 $19.49 A BOTTLE

Sourced from half a dozen key vineyards in the Cromwell Basin, this opens proceedings with fragrant, floral-tinged notes of stonefruit and spice underpinned by a flicker of lemon. The long, intense palate displays a hint of sweetness balanced by refreshing lime accents, and bottle aging has allowed the wine to develop a lush viscous character that complements the plump apricot flavours.

PEREGRINE CENTRAL OTAGO Pinot Gris 2012

was $29.00 now $24.99 17112

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

Harvested in prime condition from the Cromwell Basin, Peregrine's PG was cool fermented and lees-aged in stainless steel to retain freshness and textural complexity. Stonefruit and pear aromas are edged with mineral notes, while the off-dry palate explodes with tropical flavours tarted up with grapefruit and quietened slightly by firm acid. Appealingly sensuous.

Pinot loves Central, the extremes in temperature being somewhat similar to those in Burgundy. The style produced here is markedly different, with a bucketful of charred cherries assailing the nose. A perfect example of the iron fist in the velvet glove: powerfully subtle, concentrated yet balanced, opulently restrained.

SPARKLING

A CELEBRATION OF SPARKLING WINES FROM ACROSS THE GLOBE TO MAKE EVERY DAY A FESTIVE OCCASION

QUARTZ REEF

BENDIGO'S BRILLIANT BUBBLES

Though they refer to themselves as the House of Pinot Noir, the sparkling wines of Quartz Reef are among New Zealand's very best. Austrian émigré Rudi Bauer has made himself right at home in the Bendigo sub-region of Central Otago since arriving back in 1985. Something of a pragmatist, Rudi's sparkling project was a way of having a Plan B to fall back on if the Pinot didn't fly. Fortunately for Rudi, they both worked, with the Quartz Reef Pinot Noir currently benchmark Bendigo and their méthodes featuring in any list of the New World's top sparkling wines.

Quartz Reef BENDIGO Méthode Traditionnelle Rosé NV

WAS $39.99 NOW $32.99 17232

CASE OF 6 $32.49 A BOTTLE

A charming and delightful pink méthode, made from 100% Bendigo Pinot fruit, aged for twenty-four months on lees and hand-riddled (i.e. the gentle turning of the bottles every day by hand). 5g/l sugar makes this very dry, with most non-vintage champagne coming in at around 10g/l. An excellent aperitif, it'll also pair brilliantly with roast duck.

ROCKBURN
CENTRAL OTAGO PINOT NOIR 2011

WAS $49.99 NOW $39.99 15962

CASE OF 12 $39.49 A BOTTLE

The Rockburn awards cupboard must be getting a tad full: year after year this winery wins acclaim for its vibrantly executed vinous triumphs, and when you've met the ultra-perfectionist Malcom Rees-Francis, the winemaker behind all this success, it comes as no surprise. One of Rockburn's star attributes is, in fact, their sheer consistency. Here, lifted aromatics, silky textures, some anchoring earthy notes and just the right amount of oak, all integrated into a superbly harmonious whole.

MARLBOROUGH PINOT NOIR 2011

WAS $23.99 NOW $16.99 13096

CASE OF 6 $16.49 A BOTTLE

SOHO McQUEEN
CENTRAL OTAGO PINOT NOIR 2011

WAS $42.99 NOW $28.99 11874

CASE OF 12 $28.49 A BOTTLE

Apparently the name denotes the contrasting elements of tradition and the unconventional. Behind the flashy marketing, though, is a very good Pinot, crafted by one of Central Otago's great winemakers, Grant Taylor. Grant is the winemaker behind the Valli wines, and under the Soho label he has successfully fashioned a silken, textural, very attractive wine.

CENTRAL OTAGO PINOT NOIR 2012

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

Chard Farm's ready-to-drink-now model is a perennial favourite, it's attractively scented, seductively fruity Central Otago sweetness and soft tannins just right for the cooler weather. It'll match rather nicely both red and white meat dishes.

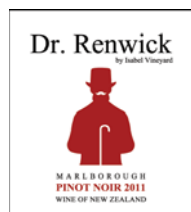

AKARUA RUA
CENTRAL OTAGO PINOT NOIR 2012

WAS $28.99 NOW $22.99 10080

CASE OF 12 $22.49 A BOTTLE

Nothing short of a Central Otago fruit bowl, this is highly seductive and wonderfully affordable; Akarua's drink-now model is extremely user-friendly, notes of cherry, violet and rosewater wafting in its wake as it travels the Silk Road with its bundle of spice. Fresh, fruity, juicy and good to go. Try it.

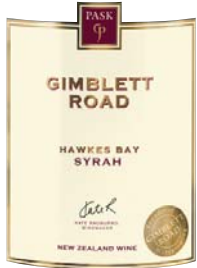

DR RENWICK
MARLBOROUGH PINOT NOIR 2011

WAS $18.90 NOW $14.99 10472

CASE OF 6 $14.49 A BOTTLE

In the recent Metro Top 100, this vino successfully stood its ground against Pinots that sell for a great deal more. In the glass it's soft and supple, with savoury mushroom notes sprinkled over rich, ripe fruit. Emphatically over delivers.

PASK GIMBLETT ROAD HAWKES BAY SYRAH 2011

CASE OF 12 $19.49 A BOTTLE

From the astute hands of Kate Radburnd (as well as her blockbuster Chardonnays, she's all over crafting a mighty fine Syrah as well). Light floral fragrances pave the path to the juicy flavours, with a touch of the savoury and a few wild straws thrown in for good measure. A lovely, balanced wine with just the right amount of pepper, spice and all things nice.

CRAGGY RANGE GIMBLETT GRAVELS SYRAH 2011

CASE OF 12 $25.49 A BOTTLE

A wine to buy with confidence, Craggy Range being one of the top producers of Syrah in the country and the Gravels arguably the variety's favourite location (Indeed, the Craggys seldom put a foot wrong). Some lovely smokey notes accompany the excellent, pepper-tinged fruit, with astutely judged oak and fine tannins in close attendance.

D'ARENBERG LOVE GRASS MCLAREN VALE SHIRAZ 2009

CASE OF 6 $21.49 A BOTTLE

The delightfully eccentric Osborn family never fail to entertain as they combine their outstanding vinous abilities with a sense of marketing humour that finds their tongues constantly in their cheeks: The Love Grass grows wild in the vineyards, its sticky flowers clinging assiduously to passing vineyard workers. Here the hands-on approach includes small batch harvesting, foot treading and basket pressing. Savoury and spicy nuances and a long mineral finish beautifully augment the sweet fruit.

D'ARENBERG'S CHESTER OSBORN

DEAKIN ESTATE SHIRAZ 2012

WAS $17.50 NOW $11.99 20786

CASE OF 12 $11.49 A BOTTLE

WAS $22.99 NOW $18.99 29228

CASE OF 6 $18.49 A BOTTLE

The Wynns wines are remarkable, with an outstanding ability to age gracefully for many years (they do ten easily). Intrinsicly Coonawarra, this is everything you'd hope for in a class Australian Shiraz: pepper, spice, well executed oak and opulent, fruity goodness.

VICTORIA PARK SHIRAZ 2011

WAS $25.99 NOW $13.99 22025

CASE OF 12 $13.49 A BOTTLE

There's a bargain to be had here: With an oversupply of South Australian grapes on the market, fruit off some of the top producers' best vines has had to be repackaged, and we've got it. Great buying.

SALTRAM MAMRE BROOK BAROSSA CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2009

WAS $32.99 NOW $27.99 26836

CASE OF 6 $27.49 A BOTTLE

An outstanding wine, both a gold medallist and a trophy winner. The Mamre Brook has been in short supply of late, the Aussies opting to keep it to themselves, so we're delighted to have secured ourselves a parcel of this legendary Australian. Sourced from old Barossa vines and matured for twenty-two months in French and American oak, it is superbly rich and intense, with layers of chocolate-infused berry flavours and supple tannins. How they do it for this price? Who knows.

DEEN DE BORTOLI VAT 9 CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2010

WAS $24.50 NOW $15.99 20942

CASE OF 6 $15.49 A BOTTLE

Cabernet likes a fair amount of heat to ripen, something they're not short of in Australia. This bursts out of the glass singing its ripe plum and cassis-lined blackberry notes, backed up by a deft touch of oak.

PASK GIMBLETT ROAD HAWKES BAY MERLOT 2009

WAS $25.90 NOW $19.99 10831

CASE OF 6 $19.49 A BOTTLE

Just one of the superb Hawkes Bay Merlots we feature in this selection, crafted under the watchful gaze of the clever Kate Radburnd. This is 100% Gimblett Merlot from the 2009 vintage, which was outstanding in the Bay. Ripe, fragrant plums and boysenberries are let loose, accompanied by subtle savoury notes and soft spice characters. Very good food wine.

CHURCH ROAD McDONALD HAWKES BAY MERLOT 2012

WAS $34.99 NOW $26.99 15253

CASE OF 6 $26.49 A BOTTLE

The McDonald Series is a tribute to the pioneering NZ winemaker Tom McDonald, whose entrepreneurial spirit got the whole ball rolling at the current Church Road Winery site. WAS $19.99 NOW $17.99 11403

CASE OF 12 $17.49 A BOTTLE

Not all that many straight Merlots made in NZ these days, but it's years like 2011 and 2012 when Merlot has its glory days in the Bay. This basks in Peter Robertson's signature style' i.e. consistent, well crafted, exceptional value for money wines. Never falters.

A SINGULAR VISION

The dedicated Roger Parkinson made his way to Auckland recently to taste through his whole range with our team, and his body of work was, as ever, a revelation. What took our attention was the quality and purity of his current batch, all of them exceptional examples of what Martinborough is capable of. With all the wines estate grown and built to last, they display an adept mix of structure, texture and balance.

DIDIER DAGUENEAU

DAGUENEAU

POST-PRANDIAL GENIUS

The Sauvignon Blanc wines of the Loire's risk-taking perfectionist Didier Dagueneau are legendary. Meeting an untimely end in a plane crash in 2008, his legacy has been kept alive by his family, and to this day Dagueneau's Silex is hailed as the pinnacle of Sauvignon production. In 2002, Didier teamed up with his friend Guy Pautrat to produce benchmark dessert wines in the Jurançon region, located at the foot of the Pyrénées and home to some of the world's great sweet wines. As with their Sauvignons, the Dagueneau approach to the enterprise involves exacting and uncompromising dedication.

DAGUENEAU LES JARDINS DE BABYLONE JURANÇON 2007 500mL

WAS $200 NOW $160 42782

The estate's spectacular amphitheatre of terraced vineyards was the inspiration for the name of the wine. Here, the balance between sweetness and acidity is of paramount importance and is key to the region's distinctive style, with the botrytised fruit picked as late as November. The variety is Petit Manseng, which thrives on the steep mountainous slopes. The wine itself is rich, full bodied, its sweet, viscous tendencies beautifully countered by a streak of natural acidity that is quite remarkable. An epic wine worthy of a great cellar.

KILIKANNOON

WINERY OF THE YEAR 2013
JAMES HALLIDAY'S AUSTRALIAN WINE COMPANION

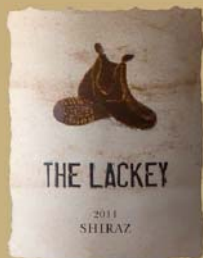

Kevin Mitchell's whole life has revolved around wine production; he was born and raised in the Clare Valley, playing and working in the vineyard with his father Mort. The Kilikanoon property Kevin purchased in 1997 included mature vines planted in the 1960s by Mort.

Today Kilikanoon and its partners own or control over 2000 hectares of prime vineyards throughout South Australia. Kevin's vision is to craft terroir-styled wines from low-yield, mature vineyards; which translates as careful maturation, with no fining, clarification or filtration.

Since its initial releases, the winery has won countless awards. This includes the rather astounding feat of taking six of the seven trophies on offer at the 2002 Clare Valley Wine Show. In 2005, the astute Robert Parker described Kilikanoon thus: 'This is one of the most brilliantly run wineries in Australia, and the quality of the entire portfolio is impressive thanks to the enviable talents of winemaker Kevin Mitchell.'

Open fermentation, basket pressing and 24 months in French oak have produced an intense and complex wine showing rich, ripe, chocolate-tinged blackcurrant flavours accompanied by hints of violet, tobacco and charry oak, all wrapped around a firm tannic backbone. Calls for some time in the cellar to bring out its true character.
