We kick off 2014 with a brief look back over our shoulder at the 1980s, a decade when Indiana Jones ran amok in temples, Michael Jackson actually thrilled us, the world was taken over by the CD, the PC and MTV, and Steve Jobs encountered his true calling. Right at the end, the Berlin Wall came crashing down.

Back in NZ, the country almost underwent binary fission over the Springbok Tour, the Aussie cricketers tried on underarm bowling for size, Rob Muldoon experienced his own personal 1984 when he was snap-elected out of office, David Lange got a whiff of radiation and championed a nuclear-free New Zealand, the French came to town and left with the Rainbow Warrior in pieces, our collective champagne lifestyle came plummeting down with the Black Monday stock market crash and the All Blacks won the inaugural World Cup. And New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc took the wine world by storm.

In amongst all of that, the family-owned Glengarry was hard at work on its own personal empire, exploring the possibilities, pushing out the boundaries. The 1980s had their fair share of milestones, and while there is always plenty of chatter regarding the changing nature of retail, when you pare it down, it's still all about good-quality products and outstanding service.

This edition of the Glengarry Wineletter sees the return of some names you may not have seen since those times, a collection of old favourites that have dusted themselves off and made themselves over for a new generation of wine lovers. It was in the 1980s that regulations regarding imported wine were relaxed, and we were quick to jump on the bandwagon (we've not got off yet, it's moving so fast). Our first import was Australian fizz-kid, Angus Brut. Then came Bordeaux, and our heart has not moved far from its borders ever since. Take a trip with us down memory lane and, in the process, back to the future; you'll enjoy the ride.

GROWER'S MARK COMELY BANK PINOT GRIS 2013

$16.99 10829

CASE OF 12 $15.99 A BOTTLE
Sustainably grown fruit

Harvested from the Comely Bank vineyard in Marlborough's Wairau Valley, this pale green-gold Pinot Gris exhibits varietal aromas of ripe pear, lychee and honeysuckle supported by an intriguing hint of almond. Youthful and stylish (as the young so often are), it's a well weighted wine with ripe stonefruit flavours that drive on through to a lively finish.

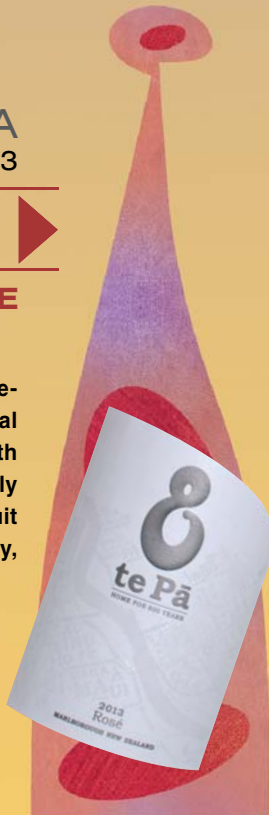

TE PA MARLBOROUGH ROSÉ 2013

$18.99 13085

CASE OF 12 $17.99 A BOTTLE
Ideal summer sipping

Born and raised in Te Pa's Wairau Bar vineyard, this dispenses its spicy, slightly herbal strawberry, raspberry and plum notes with much aplomb. It's a mouthfilling, buoyantly fruity wine with delightful, soft summer fruit flavours nuanced with spice. Fresh and lively, it'd go some food nicely, we reckon.

COOPERS CREEK

WINEMAKER SIMON NUNNS

With three decades of devoted toil and a cabinetful of awards under their belt, Coopers Creek have fashioned themselves a formidable reputation within the upper echelons of New Zealand winemaking. Over the years they have come and gone on our shelves as their focus between local and international markets has shifted, and we have to say we're thrilled to once again have them firmly ensconced within our stores.

With their longstanding love of innovation, Coopers Creek have led the charge on many fronts, not least the development of a number of intriguing varieties that have responded favourably to our cooler climate. The likes of Viognier, Albariño, Arneis, Grüner Veltliner, Marsanne and Montepulciano are relatively new varieties for New Zealand, and if the early signs are anything to go by, these are heading for the podium.

You'll find these precocious prodigies under Coopers Creek's SV (Select Vineyards) range, sitting confidently alongside the benchmark Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Sauvignon expressions. They are food-friendly wines, carefully crafted by award-winning winemaker Simon Nunns to evoke the essence of their respective terroirs as they inspire and excite your palate.

COOPERS CREEK SV DILLONS POINT

MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC 2013

$19.99 11536

CASE OF 6 $18.99 A BOTTLE

Having netted a few awards along the way, including gold at this year's Bragato Wine Awards, it's no surprise when you take your first hit of the Dillons just how scintillating an experience it is. Exploding with a torrent of tropical fruit, there's an edgy, restless herbaceousness which keeps it keen, while a wonderful mid-palate weight and richness suggests seafood would enhance the experience.

COOPERS CREEK SV THE LIMEWORKS

HAWKES BAY CHARDONNAY 2013

$19.99 11537

CASE OF 6 $18.99 A BOTTLE

Single vineyard, exceptional value. Peach and citrus notes assail the nose, nicely nuanced by some toasty American oak. The generous peach and apricot flavours are elegantly encased in a buttery texture, while a twist of lime at the end signs things off beautifully.

CASE OF 6 $18.99 A BOTTLE
Pure Gold, Air NZ Wine Awards

A white variety that thrives in Spain's north-western appellation of Rias Baixas and parts of Portugal, the fruit for this is all Gisborne, courtesy of Doug and Delwyn Bell. The wine itself comes across pure and fresh, with delightful hints of citrus and peach. Committed fans of the Spanish expressions, we're delighted to find Albariño feeling so at home in this part of the world.

SPARKLING

Mionetto

low alcohol, high quality:
FRIZZANTE-STYLE APERITIFS AND SPARKLERS FOR SUMMER

The Mionetto family winery was established by Francesco Mionetto in 1887 in the village of Valdobbiadene, located in the Treviso province north of Venice. Since then it has evolved to become one of Italy's most important wineries, recognised globally for its Prosecco di Valdobbiadene.

The family has a strong bond with the winemaking traditions of the Conegliano-Valdobbiadene DOC, but what sets it apart is the innovative tendencies that have led to a bold range of wines celebrating classic Italian frizzante and sparkling styles.

Presented in elegant crown-capped bottles, the Il range are low alcohol, low calorie wines, breezy in character and perfectly suited for summer enjoyment, as aperitifs or with lighter fare. Something different? This is it.

Back to the Future

We welcome back some familiar faces reinventing themselves for the new millennium

The two decades leading up to the end of the 20th century were exciting times, with the New Zealand Government in the early 1980s finally allowing retailers to sell imported wines, in the process giving Glengarry the opportunity to tap into a whole new world.

Raised in a culture with a progressive attitude more in tune with the growing number of discerning local wine drinkers, the third generation of Glengarry's Jakicevich family became actively involved in managing the burgeoning retail empire, throwing their enthusiasm for all things vinous into the development of an environment more in tune with the global sensibilities that existed beyond our shores.

Within this setting sat a number of iconic brands, each shedding its own unique light upon the times and leaving behind some fond memories in the process. Some of these have made a return – adjusted to a new market, with their glory not in the least diminished – to strut their stuff to a whole new audience. We welcome them back.

Black Tower

Ah, Black Tower; it came in those ultra-classy ceramic bottles sporting heraldic imagery that simply reeked of finesse. Well, that's what we thought in our twenties anyway. Germany's biggest-selling wine export, Black Tower has these days reinvented and upgraded itself, converting to glass and putting out a range of single varietal styles, among them Rivaner, Riesling, rosé and Pinots Grigio and Noir. Here, we feature their alcohol-reduced range, 5.5% abv and 55 calories per 125ml; just the thing, then, for the modern-era, health-conscious approach to life.

Mateus

Since its return to our shelves in sleek new livery, customers have been waxing lyrical about the last time they drank Mateus rosé. Its origins date back to 1942, when Fernando Guedes set out to put Portugal on the vinous map from his small family winery, Sogrape Vinhos, which rose by the end of the eighties to become the largest wine producer in Portugal.

The centrepiece of his agenda was the ubiquitous Mateus, the first wine to attain true global notoriety, and today boasting a presence in more than 125 countries. Salvador Guedes, grandson of Fernando, explains: 'Our challenge is to sustain the Mateus as we pass it from generation to generation, and that's why every so often we make subtle changes to the bottle.' Regardless of outer appearances, the unique essence of this iconic wine remains unchanged.

ROSÉ

$9.99 78211

Fresh, seductive, the Mateus is a bona fide classic – namedropped by rockstars and stockpiled by despots – with an intense but refined bouquet and all the exuberance of a young wine. It is slightly more frizzante and a little less sweet these days, as it attempts to engage with the modern preference for a drier tipple. At 11% alcohol, it's refreshing and well worth a revisit.

Deinhard

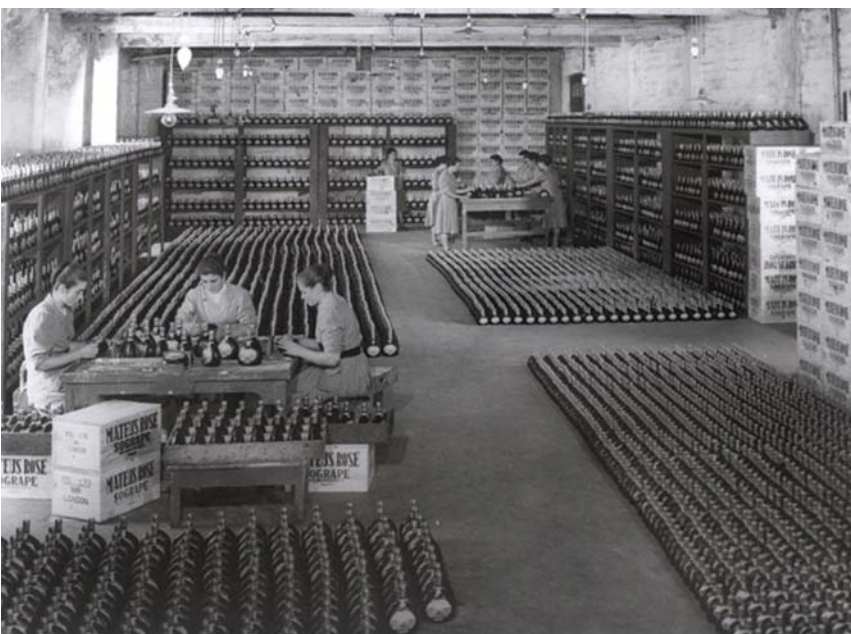

Alongside Mateus back then was Deinhard, a benchmark wine when German Riesling was an obsession in London that made its way to our own shores. Founded in 1794 by Johann Friedrich Deinhard, the company is nothing if not a survivor; indeed, from its inception war seems to have been a constant test of the company's resilience. By 1900 it had become the largest wine and sparkling wine company in Germany. Almost destroyed by the ravages of WWII, the company rebuilt and has survived to recently launch a new, expanded range to accommodate the aspirations of a 21st-century clientele.

DEINHARD GREEN LABEL
MOSEL RIESLING 2012

$13.99 54534

CASE OF 12 $12.99 A BOTTLE

Classic white wine from the Mosel region, with an elegant balance of delicate fruitiness and a crisp, fresh finish. Sporting smarter livery these days and dialled back a little, this is still crafted for those with a taste for fruitier, sweeter Rieslings, a la Pegasus Bay's fuller expressions.

MATEUS: THE WAY IT WAS

Introducing new wines and innovative ideas has always been a hallmark of Glengarry. By the mid-1980s, the number of New Zealand and Australian brands had increased substantially, so in order to provide a benchmark of sorts, Glengarry introduced the popular Australian sparkler, Angas Brut, to the New Zealand palate. This proved to be a stepping stone on the way to Europe and the glorious mystique of France's Bordeaux, Burgundy and Champagne regions.

ANGAS BRUT

YALUMBA ANGAS BRUT
PREMIUM CUVÉE NV

$12.99 27005

CASE OF 6 $11.99 A BOTTLE

Aussie wine mag Gourmet Traveller pronounced Angas Brut 'a terrific aperitif-style sparkler for the warmer weather.' Around 75% Pinot Noir, 25% Chardonnay, this delivers such a delightful blend of bright strawberries and crisp red apples that you'll find yourself basking in your own personal ray of sunshine.

CHAMPAGNE

DRAPPIER
CARTE BLANCHE BRUT NV

$43.99 43500

CASE OF 12 $39.99 A BOTTLE

The Drappier house is wonderful value, its quality highly underrated. An explosive, rich and toasty nose emanates from the fresh, creamy palate. Out of all the champagnes here, this has utilised the lowest amounts of sulphur; the low dosage also makes it one of the driest.

PIPER-HEIDSIECK
CUVÉE BRUT NV

$49.99 48118

They continue to ramp up the quality at Piper-Heidsieck without dialling down the exuberant charm one iota. The NV bursts with citrus/orange juiciness and surges forth on a wave of grilled toast and marzipan. Fruity, fragrant, it's the perfect party wine.

POL ROGER
BRUT RÉSERVE NV

$69.99 48210

CASE OF 6 $68.99 A BOTTLE

Pol Roger is distinctively styled, the rich white and gold fruit characters creamily dispersed upon a bed of yeasty, biscuity beauty. Possessing a wonderful balance, poise and finish, it is consistently one of Champagne's greatest non-vintage wines. Aristocratic.

CHARLES HEIDSIECK
BRUT RÉSERVE NV

$89.99 41522

CASE OF 6 $88.99 A BOTTLE

Plump, fleshy and opulent, the new Charles is a triumph: With a complex and voluptuous nose, it dispenses its riches as warm rivers of sun-drenched fruits (mango, apricot, plum), nutty nuances of pistachio and almond, and layers of creamy texture. A tremendous wine.

BOLLINGER
SPECIAL CUVÉE NV

$89.99 40820

CASE OF 6 $88.99 A BOTTLE

In terms of style, Bollinger stands alone. Robust and larger than life, the intense biscuit and apple characters are supported by firm oak. Coffee, caramel and honey augment the rich tides of fresh fruit, while the complex characters are carried to a phenomenal finish. Inimitable.

CRAFT PIONEERS

THE McCashin STORY

DEAN AND TERRY McCASHIN

Craft beer production and the emergence of micro-breweries has been on an upward curve for the last decade, but the situation some thirty years ago was quite different; beer production was restricted to just two giant breweries. Enter former All Black Terry McCashin, a Picton publican who could not find a beer he wanted to drink, or serve to his customers. With nothing else in the offing, Terry decided to produce his own.

The first hurdle Terry had to overcome was red tape; in fifty years, no-one had applied for a licence to brew beer, and the only person who knew about the procedures and documentation had died. In 1981, however, with licence finally in hand, The McCashin Brewery opened in Stoke, Nelson, making itself at home in the old Rochdale Cider factory which the family had purchased.

Under head brewer Jim Pollitt, McCashin's Mac beers were naturally produced using only malts, hops and yeast. The resulting brews – produced over a 12-week period and matured to perfection – proved to be exceedingly popular. In time, the Mac brand changed hands and production moved to the North Island.

The McCashin family have remained in the game, however, with Terry's son Dean and his wife Emma reopening the historic Stoke brewery, from where they produce their award-winning Rochdale ciders and a premium range of Stoke craft beers. The beers are batched brewed from traditional McCashin family recipes, using pure Palaeo water, Nelson hops, premium malts and bespoke yeast, with no artificial colouring or additives. The innovation that is the hallmark of the McCashin family is very much to the fore in the Stoke brewery, which boasts a 100-litre, temperature-controlled pilot plant where new beer styles can be developed. The superb Stoke beers created by the current McCashin generation pay a fitting tribute to Terry's legacy.

Bordeaux

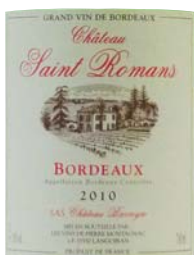

As imported wine started to flow into NZ, Glengarry led the charge, jumping into Bordeaux En Primeur as far back as 1985; and we have been blazing that trail ever since, in the process accumulating a wealth of experience and understanding as to what – and what not – to do. Looking back at our first offer is quite revealing:

'1982 First Growth: $755.00. The replacement price in June 1985 listed at $3,120.00 ... returns of 413% on your investment.'

Glengarry continues to be the leading importer of Bordeaux in NZ, from the delightfully approachable 2009 and 2010 Petits Châteaux through to an impressively extensive range of Classified Growths.

For the month of February we're having a Bordeaux sale on a scale seldom seen in NZ. Go online at glengarry.co.nz/bordeauxsale or come instore to view it all.

From great value Bordeaux...

CHÂTEAU SAINT ROMANS
BORDEAUX 2010

$15.99 44438

CASE OF 12 $14.99 A BOTTLE

The Saint Romans is a classic, ripe red berry, entry-level Bordeaux, with a pleasantly soft palate and a long finish. A decent quality drinking claret, it makes an ideal partner for partridge, pheasant, rack of lamb or roast turkey with roasted vegetables.

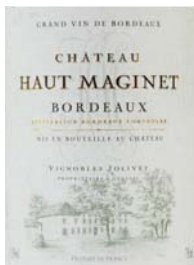

CHÂTEAU DE LUGAGNAC
BORDEAUX SUPÉRIEUR 2009

$22.99 42116

CASE OF 12 $21.99 A BOTTLE

The Lugagnac estate can trace its history back to the 14th century. With 24 months in oak barriques, this blend of Cabernet, Merlot and Franc has a bouquet of blackberry and cherry supported by hints of cedar. The generously flavoured palate is built around a core of supple tannins.

CHÂTEAU HAUT MAGINET
BORDEAUX 2010

$16.99 41131

CASE OF 12 $15.99 A BOTTLE

This Merlot-dominant red from Bordeaux' excellent 2009 vintage has defined plum aromas and flavours supported by spicy nuances and supple tannins. Smooth in texture, long in flavour, great value.

CHÂTEAU CORCONNAC
HAUT-MÉDOC 2010

$24.99 41172

CASE OF 12 $23.99 A BOTTLE

These guys have been making great wines for decades. Cabernet dominant, as you'd expect on this side of the river where you're rubbing schist with communes like Margaux and Pauillac, it has a sweet fruit perfume, some savoury characters and a delightful succulence.

CHÂTEAU LA VERRIERE
BORDEAUX SUPÉRIEUR 2011

$18.99 41167

CASE OF 12 $17.99 A BOTTLE

In those halcyon years where the top wines are more valuable than a block of gold (e.g. 2010), it's the value end of the spectrum that holds the interest for most of us. This consistently over-delivers in the quality to value ratio. Merlot dominant, ripe flavours, smooth textures.

VAL DELLE ROSE

The Cecchi family explore the Tuscan coast

The Val delle Rose estate is located at Poggio la Mozza in southern Tuscany's Maremma area, a beautiful coastal region that is home to great wines like Sassicaia and Ornellaia. The southern part of Tuscany is dramatically different to the north, remaining relatively unspoilt.

When the Cecchi family first invested in Maremma in 1996, they started with a mere 25ha of poorly maintained vineyards, which they have assiduously replanted and replenished, adding on new vineyards to finally cover an impressive 90ha. Val delle Rose is the newest of their four properties, an on-site winery soon to be completed.

The Tuscan Maremma is one of the new frontiers of quality Italian viticulture, its climatic characteristics very favourable to cultivation. From Maremma, the family produce Vermentino and Morellino di Scansano.

VAL DELLE ROSE

VAL DELLE ROSE LITORALE TUSCANY VERMENTINO 2010

$19.99 62770

CASE OF 6 $18.99 A BOTTLE

Incubated within the warm coastal climes of Maremma, this is 85% Vermentino fruit with a 15% boost of Sauvignon Blanc. Like some pleasure-seeking beach fanatic, Vermentino loves the heat, but needs a little sea breeze to keep the burn down and everything in check. Aged in wood for nine months, this is soft and full, yet with a crisp backbone of refreshing acidity; it's actually rather wonderful. Try it with fish, risotto or, even better, a bit of both.

PASQUA BRAND VENETO SOAVE CLASSICO DOC 2012

$13.99 66096

CASE OF 6 $12.99 A BOTTLE

One of Italy's most important white varieties, this fine expression is the native Garganega blended with 20% Trebbiano di Soave. With a palate echoing golden apples and white peaches, it's crisply fresh and a star with seafood or antipasto.

TERRELÍADE TIMPA GIADDA SICILIA GRILLO IGT 2012

$13.99 62845

Produced from Grillo, Sicily's most distinguished white variety, with the fruit, spice, florals and mineral notes bound seamlessly together into an elegant whole. It's remarkably full-bodied, with a generous endowment of personality and presence.

CECCHI TUSCANY ORVIETO CLASSICO DOC 2012

$14.99 62308

CASE OF 6 $13.99 A BOTTLE

This flies out the door, a crisp and aromatic white that proves highly popular over the summer months. With fresh stocks just landed, you can sit back and enjoy the fruit's varietal fragrance and a structure and intensity that is quite delightful.

CECCHI VERNACCIA DI SAN GIMIGNANO DOCG 2012

$18.99 62380

CASE OF 6 $17.99 A BOTTLE

San Gimignano is a picturesque town in the heart of Tuscany, and this Vernaccia comes from vineyards located around the base of the hill it stands on. A crisp white wine with a delightfully perfumed, delicate nose and a lively, flavoursome palate.

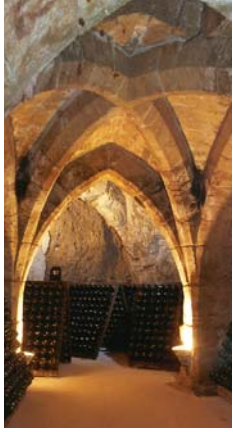

SANTA MARGHERITA VALDADIGE PINOT GRIGIO 2012

$21.99 62556

CASE OF 12 $20.99 A BOTTLE

A crisp, dry white with Grigio's characteristic light hues, this is dazzlingly clean, with intense aromas of ripe apples. Very personable, very versatile; in accompaniment to a wide variety of foods or flying solo, it's a delight to imbibe.

A TASTE OF France

DOMAINE ROMANIN

Five generations of French finesse

Domaine Romanin is located in Burgundy in the village of Fuissé, right at the heart of the famous vineyards of Pouilly-Fuissé, where the domaine's Vervier Family are now into their fifth generation of winegrowing. Unsurprisingly, tradition plays a key part in Denis Vervier's vinous strategies as he goes about crafting his exemplary and authentic expressions, with sustainable viticulture, manual harvesting, time-tested cellar techniques and scrupulous attention to detail all key components.

The vines are between 30 and 70 years old and enjoy a south/south-eastern exposure that is highly conducive to ripening, with the clay and limestone soils typical of the region bestowing their own unique characteristics on the Chardonnay fruit via fruity and floral nuances. There is, particularly with the blended Pouilly-Fuissés, a skill in the assemblage that sets this area of Burgundy apart.

HARVEST, DOMAINE ROMANIN

DOMAINE ROMANIN POUILLY-FUISSÉ TERROIR DE FUISSÉ 2012

$24.99 43732

CASE OF 12 $23.99 A BOTTLE

Chardonnays from the south of Burgundy may not have the cachet of, say, Möntrachet in the north, but neither do they have the price tag. Yet, as is clear from this thrilling expression, wines from the limestone soils of the Mâcon and from arguably its finest vineyards, those of Pouilly-Fuissé, can hold their heads high among their more noted cousins from the north. This deliciously buttery expression is a delightful balance of strength and sensitivity, integrating an elegantly restraining minerality into its hedonistic combination of honeysuckle, fruit and cream.

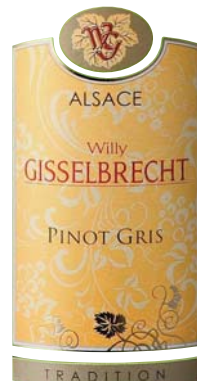

LAROCHE DE LA CHEVALIÈRE SOUTH OF FRANCE CHARDONNAY 2012

$16.99 48572

CASE OF 6 $15.99 A BOTTLE

Laroche's mastery of Chardonnay shines through in this stylish, fruit-driven Languedoc-Roussillon. Ripe stonefruit aromas exude spicy mineral notes onto a generously flavoured wine with a creamy texture and a persistent, citrus-edged finish.

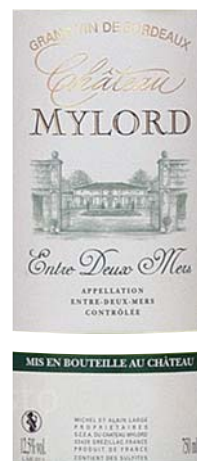

GISSELBRECHT TRADITION ALSACE PINOT GRIS 2012

$19.99 47018

CASE OF 12 $18.99 A BOTTLE

Our top-selling Gris, from what is arguably the variety's spiritual home. Entry level this off-dry expression might be, but it still delivers superbly rich and spicy restraint and delicacy. We can barely keep it on the shelves these days, it's so popular.

CHÂTEAU MYLORD ENTRE-DEUX-MERS BLANC 2012

$18.99 41142

CASE OF 12 $17.99 A BOTTLE

A 90% Sauvignon Blanc, 10% Semillon blend from Bordeaux. Beneath the aromatic, lime-infused bouquet, the palate has a fine vinous character and a fresh, crisply dry finish. Works well as an aperitif, or as an accompaniment to seafood.

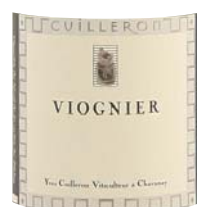

ORTAS RASTEAU CÔTES DU RHÔNE VILLAGES 2008

$20.99 43003

CASE OF 12 $19.99 A BOTTLE

70% Grenache, with the balance Rhône stalwarts Carignan and Cinsault. This glides gaily down with fruity exuberance, sumptuous bursts of juicy raspberries and darker berries, articulated with spice and truncated by finely-drawn acidic touches.

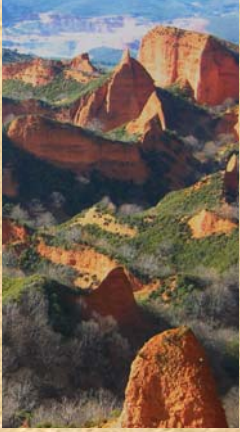

YVES CUILLERON RHÔNE VIOGNIER 2011

$24.99 44346

CASE OF 12 $23.99 A BOTTLE

The white grape of the northern Rhône and the variety behind Condrieu. This is a benchmark style and a must-buy for anyone into Viognier; rich, oily and channelling apricots, with a suave texture that could only be attributed to Viognier. Elegant.

A TASTE OF SPAIN

FINCA NUEVA

Allende's high-flying offshoot

Finca Nueva is the younger sibling of Rioja's highly respected and almost mythical Allende winery, the creation of one of Spain's finest winemakers, Miguel Ángel de Gregorio, and his sister Mercedes. Finca Nueva was created as a device to shrug aside the constraints of Riojan tradition and allow the talented and influential Miguel Ángel a wider scope for his skills.

The winery is based on 20 hectares of vines in Briones that are not used for Allende. While the Allende wines are serious in nature – tannic wines derived from vines immersed in iron-rich clay – the Finca Nueva expressions are fruitier and more immediately accessible, grown on largely calcareous soils and crafted with a new generation of wine drinkers in mind.

MIGUEL ÁNGEL DE GREGORIO

FINCA NUEVA RIOJA RESERVA 2005

$24.99 89813

CASE OF 6 $23.99 A BOTTLE

The jewel in the Finca Nueva crown, the Reserva is produced entirely from Tempranillo fruit, with the wine matured for 24 months in French barriques, bottled unfiltered and bottle aged prior to release. It is an approachable, easy-drinking red, fruity in nature and dominated by soft cherry and plum characters touched with vanillan nuances. Signs off with a lingering, velvet-lined finish.

FINCA NUEVA RIOJA TEMPRANILLO 2011

$19.99 89814

CASE OF 6 $18.99 A BOTTLE

Part of the Allende stable and 100% Tempranillo, a searingly modern Rioja with a silky succulence and super savouriness. Poured by glass tumbler in the tapas bars on Calle de Laurel, Logroño's famous tapas street. Great value everyday wine.

MAS DE BAZÁN UTIEL-REQUENA CRIANZA COUPAGE 2007

$16.99 81086

CASE OF 12 $15.99 A BOTTLE

A bunch of big red varieties. The native Bobal brings a flex of acid muscle to the mix and some good deep colour, while the Tempranillo, Grenache, Merlot and Syrah provide a fleshy, succulent balance with their plums, dark berries and spice.

HUERTA DE ALBALÁ CADIZ BARBAZUL 2010

$14.99 88034

Cadiz is renowned for its sherries. Vicente Taberner, though, had a bolder vision, planting Syrah and local red varieties in the chalk soils. A blend of Tintilla de Rota, Syrah, Merlot, Cabernet, sweet spice and plush tannins. An impeccable, deeply-flavoured delight.

EMILIO MORO REGION FINCA RESALSO 2010

$18.99 87754

CASE OF 12 $17.99 A BOTTLE

The Tempranillo fruit is from Emilio's Resalso vineyard; the nose displays cherry and berryfruit with a nice whiff of vanilla in the background. Polished and elegant, this is a nicely rounded, smoothly approachable red with a bright fruit presence.

CEPA 21 HITO RIBERA DEL DUERO 2009

$19.99 87752

The third generation of the Moro family have side-stepped the old world charm to be found in Emilio Moro's top cuvées and pushed the boundaries out to create a more modern style. Tempranillo fruit, new American oak, it's fruit driven, silky, seductive.

introducing TIM ADAMS

This family owned and operated winery is located in South Australia's Clare Valley, with its wines produced exclusively from Clare Valley fruit. Tim Adams began his career in 1975 as a cellar hand at the Stanley Wine Company, mentored there by revered Australian wine industry pioneer Mick Knappstein and rising by 1982 to the position of winemaker.

In 1985 Tim and his wife, Pam Goldsack, formed a partnership with local coopers Bill and Jill Wray. In 1986 the first wines under the Adams and Wray label were released, but the following year the partnership was dissolved, with Tim and Pam taking full control of the renamed Tim Adams Wines.

In the ensuing decades Tim Adams Wines have, via much hard work and dedication, emerged as one of Clare Valley's leading producers, with Tim still at the helm as chief winemaker and owner. The wines are characterised by their elegance and sense of place, and they are the regular recipients of global awards and accolades.
