It would be fair to say that we've long been somewhat obsessed with Bordeaux, back in the day leading from the front and importing it into New Zealand as soon as it became possible to do so. Over the decades we've honed our expertise, ensuring that we know the provenance of our stock, something that is hugely important in an increasingly counterfeit-prone world. Given the value associated with many of these wines, we consider it essential to always import them in temperature-controlled containers and, once here, store them with care before they head off to your cellar.

And here is the good news: through our longstanding relationships with the top négociants in Bordeaux, we have managed to source a vertical collection of Château Cos d'Estournel, among them some of the greatest vintages ever produced.

Call us impetuous, but in June, for only $199 a head, we will be opening these beauties – 1996, 2000, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2008 and 2010, their combined retail value exceeding $4,500 – for you to try. General Manager Liz Wheadon and Fine Wine Sales Consultant Regan McCaffery will be hosting the event and guiding you on the journey through these magnificent Bordeaux expressions.

This'll sell out pretty quickly, so book your ticket now.

AKARUA

MATT CONNELL

Akarua is today Central Otago's largest family-owned estate, their winery and 50 hectares of vineyards located on elevated terraces in Bannockburn. Like Burgundy, this landlocked sub-region enjoys a continental climate, and it is indeed the Burgundian varieties, particularly Pinot Noir, that flourish here.

Winemaker Matt Connell has the lay of the land firmly in hand: 'Our vineyards are carefully monitored to allow us to pick the fruit in optimum condition; our philosophy is to showcase the purity of the fruit and the terroir, so we employ a gentle, minimalist approach.'

Akarua has a knack for accumulating gold medals and trophies for its outstanding Pinots, but the awards don't stop there. Their impressive Chardonnay, Pinot Gris, Riesling, rosé and sparkling expressions can all lay claim to their own success stories. Vinously speaking, then, this is the complete package.

This is the third year we've been involved with the Metro Top 100. One of the things we particularly like about it is the focus on immediate drinkability. It is the biggest Metro competition yet, with more than 700 wines blind-tasted by a panel of experienced judges, followed by a re-evaluation of the highest scorers by principal judge, Paul Tudor MW. The following is a selection from the one hundred successful entries. You can, however, purchase the full Metro Top 100 range online at www.glengarry.co.nz/2014metrotop100 and from selected Glengarry stores.

CASE OF 12 $39.99 A BOTTLE

The Drappier house is wonderful value, its sheer quality too often underrated. An explosive, rich and toasty nose rides the fresh, creamy palate. Using lower than usual amounts of sulphur, the low dosage also makes it one of the drier expressions.

▶ HARRINGTON'S

The 2012 Brewer's Guild Grand Champion New Zealand Brewery supreme trophy was a fitting recognition of this pioneering independent Christchurch brewery, first established by the Harrington family over twenty years ago and now involving three generations of the family in its running.

Like many others, the company suffered their own setbacks during the Christchurch quakes, with one of their buildings destroyed. Undeterred, they have taken the opportunity to bring all the operations under one roof, with a shift this year into brand new premises in Wigram.

HOT Cider?

Who needs mulled wine when you can...

Drink cider in winter? A Cider Drambuie toddy is just the way to go when the cold is gnawing at your extremities. Perhaps even when it isn't. Here we go: 1 part Drambuie to 4 parts hot cider (heat the cider over low/medium heat), served with a cinnamon stick. Couldn't be easier. Seeking perfection? A slice apiece of ginger and lemon will go a long way towards achieving hedonistic nirvana. Over the month of June, we'll be pouring the Cider Drambuie toddy at Dida's.

ISAAC'S
BLACKCURRANT & MANUKA HONEY
CIDER 1.25 LITRE

SINGLE $9.99 91275

This seasonal offering is a delicious combination of the tart (blackcurrant) and the sweet (honey). Feeling cool-ish at the moment? Warm it up and throw in a stick of cinnamon, why dontcha. Enough here, too, to share the love around.

ASPALL PREMIER CRU
SUFFOLK DRY CYDER 500ML

SINGLE $5.99 91840

Aspall's flagship cider. With its clean, light aromas of dessert apples, the dry Premier Cru is round and lively on the palate, with a champagne taste that embodies the essence of an orchard. Crisp, subtle and elegant, this'll work a treat in the Cider Drambuie toddy recipe featured above.

A TASTE OF France

MONT-REDON Châteauneuf Chic

Established in 1344, Château Mont-Redon is distinctly old-school; it is, indeed, one of the oldest wine-producing estates in France, as well as the largest single property in Châteauneuf-du-Pape. The estate includes 100 hectares of the most perfectly-sited vineyards in the appellation. They operate from a manual they themselves call (with some justification) 'ancient know-how.' This involves hand selection of the fruit, a balanced blend of numerous varieties to highlight the aromatic qualities of the wines, sustained maceration to obtain the required depth and structure, and a refined barrel aging programme. The estate is currently in the hands of the related Abeille and Fabre families, who have been in charge here since 1923. With a continuing focus on innovation and a seamless generational transition currently underway, Mont-Redon's future as one of the great crus looks set to be as bright as its past.

Smooth drinking Rhône red

Exuberantly rustic blend of Grenache, Cinsault and Syrah, robust yet still refined, offering more complexity and sinewy succulence than you'd expect at this price. Dark berry and raspberry flavours ride the textural palate sporting a dash of coffee, pepper and spice. Blessed with a decent dose of bright fruit amongst its earthy characters, this delights now, but will continue to deliver via cellaring.

The riches of Rioja

Rioja was the historic Holy Grail of Spanish winemaking, the central point from where all else radiated. Once entangled in its own traditions, it now rides a new wave of succulent, fruit-driven wines, exhilarating in their youth yet still aging as magnificently as the Rioja of yore. That wave is, these days, becoming more of a tsunami. Hop on.

HOUGHTON

Western Australian Originals

In 1836, a mere four years after the colony of Western Australia first came into being, a syndicate of British army officers established in the Swan Valley what is now one of the country's oldest wineries, naming it after their senior ranking officer, Lieutenant Colonel Richmond Houghton.

The initial wine was released in 1859, and in 1880 Houghton received its first wine award, the Order of Merit at the Great Melbourne Exhibition. Since then, Houghton has secured hundreds of trophies and thousands of medals, making it Western Australia's most awarded winery.

The remarkable consistency that has been the Houghton benchmark was set in motion by winemaker Jack Mann. Between 1922 and 1972 he was the driving force behind the company, with his exacting standards remaining to this day at the core of Houghton's winemaking philosophy.
